SEATING CAPACITY—52,194 for baseball, 60,489 for football

PLAYING FIELD DISTANCES—Left and right field fences, 330 feet, 100.6 meters; Center field fence, 402 feet, 122.5 meters; Outfield fence, six feet high; Wall, 22 feet high.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium seating will be changed slightly in 1977, with the addition of 638 dugout level seats. These seats will move the stands closer to the playing field. Also, a $1.5 million instant replay-animation scoreboard will be installed for 1977.

The Braves' home park is located one mile south of midtown Atlanta at the junction of Interstate Highways 20, 75 and 85. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964 and the first game was played April 9, 1965 when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition before the 1965 regular season began. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. Architects were two Atlanta firms, Heery and Heery, and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Co. of Charlotte, N.C. and Atlanta. Permanent fold-away seats were added during 1976, increasing football capacity to its present level.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, STADIUM AUTHORITY—Syd Scarborough; Stadium Manager—Jim Hay; Assistant Manager—T. Herman Graves.

TED TURNER

Ted Turner brought success to another endeavor in his first year as president of the Atlanta Braves.

While the team didn't fare well in the standings, Turner was responsible for a renewed interest and excitement in big league baseball in Atlanta. Attendance at Braves' games in 1976 increased 53 per cent, nearly 300,000 over the 1975 total despite a worse finish in the Western Division of the National League.

Most of the credit for that renewed interest can be given to Turner.

Turner vowed upon his company's purchase of the Braves that the city would have a World Series within five years. He took positive steps in that direction in his first year by acquiring players such as Andy Messersmith, Gary Matthews and Jeff Burroughs. The Braves implemented a new program of intensified instruction in their minor league system, adding a minor league affiliate and additional coaches to each team. And to make the Stadium itself a more exciting place, Turner approved purchase of a $1.5 million animated scoreboard as well as building stands closer to the playing field.

Turner, 38, became president of the Braves when National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta-LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Corporation on Jan. 14, 1976.

He was born in Cincinnati, O., Nov. 19, 1938 and attended Brown University, where he was vice-president of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

His business career began as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company in Savannah, Ga. He became general manager of Turner Advertising in Macon, Ga., in 1960, and in 1963 became president and chief executive officer of the various Turner companies with offices in Atlanta.

In 1970, Rice Broadcasting merged with Turner Communications Corporation, and Turner became general manager of the flagship station, WTCG in Atlanta. Subsequently, Turner purchased WRET-TV in Charlotte, N.C., and two radio stations in Chattanooga, Tenn., as part of his communications system. In 1976, the Federal Communications Commission approved the use of a satellite system by Turner Communications in sending WTCG programming to cable systems throughout the United States.

Turner is presently serving on the Board of Directors of Southern Outdoor Markets, Inc., the Board of Directors of the Association of Independent Television Stations and on the Board of Governors of the Outdoor Advertising Institute. He was chairman of the National Outdoor Advertising Association convention held in Atlanta in 1969 and is a member of the Atlanta Advertising Club, the Capital City Club and the Atlanta Yacht Club.

Turner's successes as a yachtsman have received world-wide notice. He was captain of Mariner in the America's Cup Series in 1974 and was the first winner of the Southern Ocean Racing Conference in 1966. He was the Y Flyer National Champion in 1963, the North American Champion of the Flying Dutchman Class in 1965 and three times winner of the U.S. 5.5 Meter Championship. He has won the prestigious Scandinavian Gold Cup twice and has been honored as the Yachtsman of the Year on two occasions. He was named the World Ocean Racing Champion in 1972.

Turner has also delved into another area of sports. In January, 1977, Turner Communications Corporation became the majority limited partner of the Atlanta Hawks, giving Turner control of that National Basketball Association team.

Turner and his wife, the former Jane Shirley Smith of Birmingham, Ala., live in Marietta, Ga. They have five children, Laura Lee, R.E. Turner IV, Rhett, Beau and Jean.

BILL LUCAS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

William D. Lucas. Born Jan. 25, 1936 at Jacksonville, Fla. Graduated from Stanton High School, Jacksonville, 1953. Received B.A. degree in Education from Florida A & M University, 1957. Married Rubye Mims, has three children, Bill, Wonya and Andrea. Lives in Atlanta.

Bill Lucas became the highest ranking black official ever in a baseball front office when he was named the Braves' Director of Player Personnel last year. It came after 12 years as a member of the Braves' front office and six years as a player in the Braves' minor league system.

Lucas was signed by Milwaukee as an infielder after graduating from Florida A & M in 1957. He spent six years in the Braves system and advanced to the AAA level before ending his playing career in 1963. In 1965, he became a member of the Braves' front office, working in Atlanta for a year prior to the Braves' move South.

After two years in public relations, promotions and sales, Lucas became the Braves' assistant farm director, and in 1972 was named the farm director. He remained in that position until moving into his current job.

Lucas has had fine success leading the Braves' minor league system since 1972. His top draft choices include Preston Hanna, Pat Rockett and Dale Murphy, all considered outstanding prospects in the Atlanta minor league system. In 1976, Braves' minor league teams won one pennant and finished second in another league.

Lucas and his wife Rubye live in Atlanta with their three children.

HENRY AARON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Henry Louis Aaron. Born Feb. 5, 1934 at Mobile, Ala. Graduated from Josephine Allen Institute, Mobile, Ala., 1951. Married Billye Williams, has four children, Gail, Hank Jr., Larry and Dorinda. Lives in Atlanta.

The greatest home run hitter of all time rejoined his old club when Atlanta Braves president Ted Turner named Hank Aaron the Braves' Director of Player Development following the 1976 season.

Aaron, who ended his storied playing career with two seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, will take over the reins of the minor league system of the Braves.

Aaron rewrote all baseball history books on April 8, 1974 when he pounded out the 715th home run of his career. It surpassed the old mark of the 714 held by the legendary Babe Ruth and that moment was chosen in 1976 as the Most Memorable in baseball history. Hank hit his 715th against the Los Angeles Dodgers before 53,775 in Atlanta Stadium.

Aaron holds 20 other major league records, has a share of another major league mark and either holds solely or shares 10 National League records. Among those major league records are some truly remarkable ones, including: Most Games, Lifetime, 3,298; Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Plate Appearances, Lifetime, 13,940; Most At-Bats, Lifetime, 12,364; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755.

Aaron was voted the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 in leading the Milwaukee Braves to a World Championship. He played in 24 All-Star Games, 14 World Series and three Championship Series games. He is one of five players in major league history to hit 30 home runs and steal 30 bases in one season.

James David Bristol. Born June 23, 1933 at Macon, Ga. 5-11, 175. Graduated from Baylor School, Chattanooga, Tenn., 1951. Graduated from Western Carolina University Cullowhee, N.C., Bachelor of Science in Education. Married Betty Greenwood, has three children, Mike, Cissy and Lance. Lives in Andrews, N.C.

Dave Bristol's first season as manager of the Atlanta Braves was both stormy and disappointing in some ways. But the fiery, hard-nosed Georgia native wasn't the least bit discouraged.

His patience and work with some of the young Braves, coupled with the addition of some talented veterans, could make the Braves a force in the Western Division of the National League in 1977.

The Braves finished 6th in Bristol's first year, but the team record and overall performance improved from the previous season. Bristol's philosophy of hard work and 100 per cent effort made for a more exciting team, and he's promising more improvement and excitement in 1977.

Bristol began his baseball career with the Cincinnati Reds' organization in 1951. After 6 years in the minor leagues as an infielder, Bristol moved into a dual role of player-manager, and turned to managing exclusively in 1962, appropriately, in Macon.

During his tenure in the minor leagues, Bristol helped develop some familiar names. Pete Rose, Tommy Helms and others worked under Bristol in the minor leagues. Bristol won three pennants in his managing career in the minor leagues before getting his first big league job with Cincinnati in 1966.

Bristol didn't win any pennants with Cincinnati, but he's widely given credit for developing the team that's still winning world titles now. Rose, Johnny Bench, Gary Nolan, Tony Perez and others came into prominence under Bristol at Cincinnati.

Following his dismissal at Cincinnati in 1969, Bristol managed the expansion Milwaukee Brewers from 1970 until May of 1972. For three years, Bristol coached under Gene Mauch at Montreal before taking over the Braves last year.

Bristol lived up to his reputation as a hard-nosed, tough manager during 1976. He was fined twice and suspended once for altercations with umpires during his first year with the Braves.

Despite those problems, though, Bristol looks forward to an exciting 1977 season. Gary Matthews, Jeff Burroughs, Andy Messersmith, Willie Montanez and Mike Marshall have all joined the Braves' roster since Bristol was named the Atlanta manager back on Oct. 10, 1975. Those players, in addition to established players like Phil Niekro, Darrel Chaney and Rowland Office and youngsters like Jerry Royster, Dale Murphy, Frank LaCorte and Rod Gilbreath all lend promise to 1977.

Bristol, at 43 one of the youngest managers in the big leagues, lives in Andrews, N.C. during the off-season. He hunts, fishes and works with cutting horses on his farm there. Country music and golf are his two favorite pastimes.

Michael Richard Beard. Born June 21, 1950 at Little Rock, Ark. Bats and throws left. 6-1, 185. Graduated from Central High School, Little Rock, 1968. Attended University of Texas, Austin, Tex., and University of Arkansas, Little Rock. Single. Acquired—Drafted in the first round of secondary phase, June, 1971.

Should be one of the top lefthanders out of the Braves' bullpen again this season. Had a better season with Atlanta than statistics indicate. Allowed eight runs in his last nine games to jump his ERA to 4.24. Had his ERA under 2.00 for most of the season. During one stretch in '76, he allowed but one earned run in 12 appearances. Joined the Braves from Richmond and saved the third game he pitched in. Started the season at Richmond and was excellent, winning two games. A member of the University of Texas team that included Burt Hooton and Larry Hardy, two other big league pitchers. Led the Southern League with a 2.40 ERA in 1974. The 18th pick overall in the secondary phase of the '71 free agent draft.

ROB BELLOIR INF NO. 10

Robert Edward Belloir. Born July 13, 1948 at Heidelberg, Germany. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 170. Graduated from Southwest High School, Atlanta, 1966. Graduated from Mercer University, Macon, Ga., 1970., with a B.A. degree in English. Married Fran Hart, has one child, Dana Michelle. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Obtained along with John Odom from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for Roric Harrison, June 7, 1975.

Rob proved a very versatile utility man for the Braves during the 1976 season. He played second and third as well as his natural position of shortstop. His biggest night came against the Giants when he made two spectacular plays at third base and drove in a run with a double. Started the season with Richmond after an ankle injury slowed him during spring training. As a youngster, Belloir worked as an usher and member of the ground crew in Atlanta Stadium.

Belloir was a two-sport star at Atlanta's Southwest High School. As a senior in high school, Belloir was an All-State basketball player, averaging 21 points a game. He led his team into the state Semi-Finals in 1965. Attracted baseball scouts while a sophomore at Mercer University in Macon, Ga. Broke into professional baseball in 1969 and made the Western Carolinas All-Star team that season.

JEFF BURROUGHS OF NO. 27

Jeffrey Allen Burroughs. Born March 7, 1951 at Long Beach, Cal. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 200. Graduated from Wilson High School, Long Beach, 1969. Married Deborah Gorman. Lives in Long Beach. Acquired—Contract obtained from the Texas Rangers in exchange for those of pitcher Adrian Devine, Roger Moret and Carl Morton, outfielders Ken Henderson and Dave May and cash, Dec. 9, 1976.

Braves outfield became one of the most potent in baseball after Jeff Burroughs was acquired from the Texas Rangers during the 1976 winter meetings. The former American League Most Valuable Player has averaged better than 25 home runs and 90 RBIs a year during four and a half seasons in the big leagues. Won the MVP award in 1974 when he hit .301 with 25 homers and 118 RBIs. Should have better power figures in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Wind in Rangers' Stadium was so potent, Burroughs hit nearly twice as many homers on the road than at home during his American League career. Played for the American League All-Star team in 1974.

Burroughs was drafted No. 1 in the entire nation after Texas selected him first in the 1969 free agent draft. Went on to make the Appalachian League All-Star team in his first season with a .358 average. In 1973, hit three grand slam homers in 10 days for the Rangers. Missed by one game tying the record of two legendary power hitters—Mel Ott and Babe Ruth—when he had RBIs in 10 straight games during 1974. He had 20 RBIs in that stretch.

A three-sport star at Wilson High in Long Beach when he played baseball, basketball and football.

RICK CAMP

NO. 33

Rick Lamar Camp. Born June 10, 1953 at Trion, Ga. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 198. Graduated from Trion High School, 1971. Attended West Georgia College, Carrollton, Ga. Married Debbie Hider. Lives in Carrollton. Acquired—Signed after selection in June, 1974, free agent draft.

Young righthander had his biggest thrill and biggest disappointment in the space of two days at the beginning of the 1976 season. Was the shocker of spring training when he made the big league team after going to camp as a non-roster player. But only lasted one day on the big team. Andy Messersmith signed with the Braves as a free agent, forcing a roster change. Camp was sent to Richmond. There he performed well, helping the Braves into the International League playoffs. Starting 14 of 49 games, Camp led Richmond in wins with 10 and saves with seven. Also pitched more innings than anyone on the team.

A native Georgian, Camp attended college just an hour away from Atlanta. Was an All-State football player at Trion High School. Made his big league debut before the home folks on Sept. 15 against the Astros in Atlanta. Had his best pro season in Georgia when he was 12-10 with Savannah. Voted the outstanding rookie in spring training in 1976.

BUZZ CAPRA

Lee William Capra. Born Oct. 1, 1947 at Chicago, Ill. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 168. Graduated from Lane Tech High, Chicago. Graduated from Illinois State University, Normal, Ill., Bachelor of Arts in Art Education, 1973. Married Cheryl Lynne Faikus. Has one child, Leanne Joy. Lives in Berwyn, Ill. Acquired—Contract purchased from the New York Mets, March 26, 1974.

The 1976 season was a long and difficult one for Buzz Capra. After undergoing arm surgery in January, Capra spent all of 1976 attempting to round his arm into shape. Pitched in a few games with Richmond and five with Atlanta, but never really returned to top form. He did shine in the Florida Instructional League following the season, however. Allowed just four earned runs in 21 innings there. Most observers felt he was throwing as well as ever in his outings in Florida. Could be a big boost to the Braves' pitching staff. Still one of the most popular Braves since taking the town by storm in 1974. Led the league in ERA at 2.28 and made the All-Star team after coming to the Braves from the Mets for cash. Holds the Atlanta record for pitchers winning string at nine. As a shortstop in college, he led Illinois State to the NCAA College Division Championship in 1969. Was the Most Valuable Player in the NCAA Regional Championship that year.

High School star, both in baseball and wrestling. Drafted No. 625 in the free agent draft in 1969. Had spectacular credentials in the Mets' farm system, once leading the International League with a 2.19 ERA.

Married Cynthia Eleanor Pajak, has one child, Keith Allen. Lives in Lilburn, Ga. Acquired—Obtained from the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for outfielder Mike Lum, Dec. 12, 1975.

Darrel Chaney had his biggest year as a big leaguer in 1976. . . . He was one of the leading clutch hitters on the club last year. . . . His biggest thrill of the season came when he hit a bases-loaded triple that ended a seven-run, eighth-inning rally that beat the Pirates, 8-6. . . . That hit came before more than 48,000 on July 5 in Atlanta. . . . His .252 batting average was 45 points higher than his career average. . . . Led the club in doubles and triples, finished third in hits, fourth in RBIs and in a second place tie with seven game-winning hits. . . . Only disappointment was his 36 errors. . . . Had three hits in a game on six different occasions during the season and during one stretch, hit in 10 of 11 games. . . . Filled in at second and third during 1976 and could possibly see a great deal of play at third base this year.

Came to the Braves after a career as backup shortstop to Dave Concepcion at Cincinnati. . . . Still played big roles in Reds' World Series appearances in 1970, '72 and '75. . . . Broke into the big leagues while Braves' manager Dave Bristol was piloting the Reds in 1969. . . . Signed with the Reds after outstanding career as a high school athlete. . . . Received a full scholarship offer as quarterback from Notre Dame and Michigan State among many schools. . . . Named high school All-American quarterback by Parade Magazine. . . . Also starred in baseball and basketball in high school. . . . Signed baseball contract after high school, however, and led the Southern League in homers two years later. . . . Drafted second by the Reds in 1966 behind pitcher Gary Nolan. . . . Worked during the off-season in the Braves front office. . . . Signed a three-year contract prior to the 1977 season.

NO. 29

Victor Crosby Correll. Born Feb. 5, 1946 at Florence, S.C. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 180. Graduated from McClenaghan High School, Florence, 1964. Graduated from Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, Ga., Bachelor of Science in Recreation, 1969. Married Cheryl Woods Culpepper, has two children, Victor Crosby III and Amey. Lives in Statesboro. Acquired—Traded from Pawtucket of the Boston Red Sox organization to Atlanta in exchange for infielder Chuck Goggin, March 26, 1974.

Finished his third full season in the big leagues with the Braves as back-up catcher in 1976. Still showed flashes of good power, especially against lefthanders. Had his best power season in 1975 when he hit 11 homers in limited play. Has hit two grand slams among his 20 big league homers. His first big league homer was a grand slam. Nicknamed "Bird Dog" because of his off-season job of training hunting dogs and working as a guide on a hunting preserve. Originally with the Cleveland organization, Correll went to Boston and was rated a good catching prospect there. But an injury prior to the 1973 season slowed his progress. After recovering from that broken ankle, Correll led Boston's Pawtucket team to a Little World Series victory over Tulsa. Played winter ball in the Venezuelan League for the second straight year in 1976. Was a three-sport star during his high school days, lettering in football and basketball as well as baseball.

An amazing knuckleball continues to be Bruce Dal Canton's best pitch. Was especially effective in the first part of the year when the "Professor" won three of his first four decisions. Appeared in more games than any Brave pitcher except Adrian Devine, and all but one appearance was in relief. Came to the Braves and worked as a starter in 1975, but finished the season as one of the top relievers on the team. Started using the knuckleball in 1974 and uses it more than half the time now. Started his career in the Pittsburgh Pirate organization in 1966 at the age of 24. Had big years there, once going an entire year without losing a game. Went to Kansas City where he retired 23 Yankees in a row in his biggest game. In college he once struck out 20 of 21 men he faced in one game. Teaches school during the off-season.

Clarence Edwin Gaston. Born March 17, 1944 at San Antonio, Tex. Bats and throws right. 6-4, 210. Graduated from Holy Cross High School, Corpus Christi, Tex., 1962. Married Lena Green, has one daughter, Rochell Denis. Lives in San Antonio. Acquired—Obtained contract from the San Diego Padres in exchange for that of pitcher Danny Frisella, Oct. 7, 1974.

Cito had his best season last year since his All-Star year in 1970. His .291 batting average was 50 points better than his previous season with the Braves. A clutch pinch-hitter, Cito had a homer coming off the bench against Jerry Reuss. When pressed into a starting role, Cito responded with two homers against his old San Diego teammates in one game in August. During that week, Gaston had three homers and eight RBIs in six games. In his two years with the Braves, Cito has hit nine of 10 homers against left-handers, making him a superb righthanded pinch-hitter. Originally signed by the Braves, Cito went to the San Diego Padres in the 1969 expansion draft. Had a sensational season in 1970 when he pounded out 29 homers and drove in 93 runs for the Padres. Starred in three sports while at Holy Cross High School in San Antonio. Played in the Venezuelan League during the winter of 1976. Can play the outfield and first base.

STEVE KLINE

NO. 50

Steve Jack Kline. Born Oct. 6, 1947 at Wenatchee, Wash. Bats and throws right. 6-3, 196. Graduated from Chelan High School, 1966. Attended Washington State University and the University of Miami, Fla. Single. Acquired—Obtained from the Cleveland Indians Toledo farm team, December, 1976.

Steve Kline joins the Braves in an attempt to regain the big league form he showed with the New York Yankees in 1972. That season he was second on the team with 16 wins and finished eighth in the American League with a 2.40 ERA. Arm troubles have plagued him since then, but he showed signs of recovering from them last season. He finished with a 9-10 record at Toledo, but got off to a great start. At one point during the season in 1976, Kline was 7-3. Elbow injury and subsequent surgery were reasons for Steve's lack of play the last few seasons. Missed the entire 1975 season recovering from that injury. Was part of the trade that sent Fritz Peterson to Cleveland in exchange for Chris Chambliss and Dick Tidrow to New York. Was the Yankees 7th selection in the 1966 free agent draft.

May be on the verge of becoming one of the finest young pitchers in baseball. Had a poor record last year, but was very impressive, especially the final month of the season. Twice struck out nine Cincinnati Reds in a game last year, once in six innings and the other time in seven. Joe Morgan said LaCorte "is one of the best young pitchers we've seen this season." Don Sutton of the Dodgers: "If LaCorte's got a 3-9 record, he must have been facing the 1927 Yankees all year long." In his first 11 starts, he had a 6.35 ERA, while in his last eight he was 3.17. Struck out 61 men in the last 70 innings he pitched. In one week, he pitched 18 consecutive shutout innings against the Dodgers. Got his first major league complete game against LA. Allowed just one home run in his last 54 innings. Led the International League in strikeouts when he was called up to the big leagues in June. Could turn out to be one of those surprises teams dream of. He wasn't drafted by any big league club, and Braves got him as a free agent in 1973. Finished fourth in the league in strikeout ratio behind an impressive trio of Tom Seaver, Jerry Koosman and Steve Carlton. Among pitchers with 100 or more innings pitched, LaCorte's 0.75 strikeouts per inning was good enough for fourth.

MAX LEON

Maximino Molina Leon. Born Feb. 4, 1950 at Villa Acuña, Veracruz, Mexico. 6-0, 170. Graduated from Felipe Carrillo School in 1964. Single. Lives in Cuiclahuac, Mex. Acquired—Signed as a free agent, July 31, 1972.

Injuries slowed Max for a good part of the 1976 season, but he still responded with the best ERA on the team. Sat out over a month on the disabled list with an ankle injury. Finished the season with a flourish, allowing just one earned run in seven appearances, picking up a win and two saves. A car accident during the off-season kept Max from making the big league team at the beginning of the '76 season. Played winter baseball in the Mexican League and was one of the league leaders with an ERA under 2.00. Although only 27, Leon is a veteran of professional baseball. He's been playing since the age of 17. He was named to the All-Star team in the Mexican League at the age of 17. Had a 72-45 record in Mexico before signing with Atlanta in 1972. Biggest big league win came in 1974 when he shut out the Pirates when forced into a starting role. Will be shooting for his spot in the Braves' bullpen again this year.

Michael Grant Marshall. Born January 15, 1943 at Adrian, Mich. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 180. Graduated from Adrian High School, 1960. Obtained B.S. from Michigan State University, East Lansing, Mich., 1965. Obtained Masters degree from Michigan State, 1967. Married Nancy Lynne Matthes, has three children, Deborah, Rebekah and Kerry Jo. Lives in East Lansing, Mich. Acquired—Obtained on waivers from the Los Angeles Dodgers, June 23, 1976 in exchange for pitcher Elias Sosa and infielder Lee Lacy, acquired on waivers by the Dodgers.

Braves got the premier reliever in baseball history when Mike Marshall joined the club in June . . . He went out and proved his worth by saving the first game he pitched for the Braves . . . In fact, finished second on the team in saves despite pitching for a little over a month . . . Injured a knee against the Astros on July 31 and pitched in just five more games the remainder of the year . . . Was a great addition to the bullpen, saving six of the first 14 games he pitched in for Atlanta . . . Finished with 14 saves overall during the '76 season.

Had a season that will likely never be matched by any pitcher when he won the Cy Young award with the Dodgers in 1974 . . . Pitched in 106 games that year, a major league record . . . He was the league's best in June, winning five of six, pitching six straight complete games, two consecutive shutouts and a one-hitter to win Pitcher of the Month honors. But pulled leg muscles and shoulder problems sidelined him in mid-August for the remainder of the season. Lost his first four because he'd had no spring training. Still had the second best ERA on the club and the third most wins. Finished 12th in the league in ERA. Lost his no-hitter in Montreal in the ninth with one out. It was his first one-hitter in the National League. Also had two three-hitters in '76.

Had his best league season with the Dodgers in '75. Won 19 games, and finished second in the league with his 2.29 ERA. Has been named to an All-Star team four times, once in the American League. Was a high school baseball and football player, and then went on to star with the University of California. Was 8-2 as a sophomore with Cal and was voted to the NCAA All-District Eight team and second team All-America.

Plays his position well. Won Gold Gloves in both 1974 and '75. Also helps himself with the bat, driving in 10 runs last season. Makes a great first impression—Pitched a one-hit shutout in his first professional game in 1966, and pitched a two-hit shutout in his major league game in 1968. Tied a major league record and set the N.L. mark in 1973 when he struck out the first six batters he faced against the Phillies starting the game.

Had two 1976 shutouts, giving him 28 for his career . . . Still has a career ERA of 2.98 . . . Finished tied for third in the league in innings pitched and games started, fifth in strikeouts and seventh in wins.

Had the longest winning streak of any Brave pitcher last year with six and tied for the season-high in strikeouts with 10 . . .

Atoned for that with his sixth major league home run later on, his first since 1973, against Charlie Hough of the Dodgers . . . Had four RBIs in that game . . . Had his major league season high in RBIs with 12 . . . Had two game-winning RBIs.

Had a second consecutive fine year, but one that ended on a disappointing note . . . Did not play most of the second half of the season after injuring his knee on July 17 . . . Received the injury while making one of those diving, head-long catches in Pittsburgh . . . Prior to the injury had the longest hitting streak of any player in the league in 1976 . . . Hit in 29 straight games from May 23 to June 23 . . . Had a .397 batting average during that time . . . Led the team to a 18-11 record in June while on his hitting tear . . . In one amazing weekend against the Expos, Office went nine for 12 with a double, two homers and seven RBIs . . . Made several outstanding catches, but none as spectacular as the one he made in 1975 when he went over the center field fence head first after catching a long drive . . . Had four hits in a game twice during the '76 season.

Came to the Braves after a three-sport career at Sacramento's McClatchy High School . . . Was a high school opponent in all three sports of Brave Jerry Royster . . . Office recruited Royster for a sandlot league team which led to Royster's career as a baseball player . . . Holds the Atlanta record for consecutive pinch hits with five . . . Also tied a mark by receiving three intentional walks in one game . . . Was the fourth outfielder named to the Sporting News All-Rookie team in the 1975 season . . . Made the Western Carolinas League All-Star team during his first professional season in 1971 when he hit .302, his professional high . . . Was able to play in just 18 games following the All-Star break last year.

Thomas Marian Paciorek. Born No. 2, 1946 at Detroit, Mich. Bats and throws right. 5-4, 210. Graduated from St. Cadislaus High School, Detroit, 1964. Graduated from the University of Houston, Bachelor of Science in Education, 1970. Married Charlene Wozniak, has three children, Kimberly Ann, Shannon Lynn and Thomas Jr. Lives in Yorba Linda, Cal. Acquired — Obtained contract from the Los Angeles Dodgers along with those of Jim Wynn, Lee Lacy and Jerry Royster in exchange for those of Dusty Baker and Ed Goodson.

Everyone had always said that Tom Paciorek could hit if given the chance. Paciorek got his chance in 1976 and responded with his best year in the big leagues. Paciorek, nicknamed "Wimpy", hit .290 in 324 at-bats, bettering his big league high by nearly 30 points. Played outfield for the Braves as well as first base. Worked at third base during Florida Instructional League play following the 1976 season. Had a spectacular minor league career in the Dodgers' organization. Led his league in hitting three different seasons in the Dodger system, and in 1971 was named the Sporting News "Minor League Player of the Year" when he hit .307 with 27 homers and 107 RBIs with Albuquerque. Had an inside the park homer and a triple in the same game against the Expos in 1976, and hit the only Brave grand-slam in 1976 against Mike Cosgrove of the Astros. Has a lookalike brother, Mike, who played with the Braves' Class A farm team at Greenwood last year.

Could have had a career as a professional football player. An honorable mention All-America candidate as a defensive back while playing at the University of Houston, Paciorek was drafted in the ninth round of the 1968 pro football draft by the Miami Dolphins. Would have been drafted higher had not injuries forced him to miss much of his final college season. Chose baseball after the Dodgers picked him in the fifth round of the baseball draft that season. Another of the many Braves moving their homes to the Atlanta area. Could easily find a spot in the Braves' starting lineup in 1977.

Biff Pcoroba. Born July 25, 1953 at Burbank, Cal. Bats both and throws right. 5-10, 180. Graduated from Canoga Park, Cal., High School, 1971. Married Jodie Raymond. Lives in Woodland Hills, Ca. Acquired — Signed after selection in 17th round of the free agent draft in 1971.

Biff will be fighting to regain the No. 1 catching spot he won at the beginning of the 1976 season. Was the Braves' opening night catcher last year and stayed in that role most of the year until a knee injury forced him to miss the last two months of the season. Injured his knee in a collision at home plate with the Giants' Mike Sadek in August. His average fell off slightly but he still remains one of the top catching prospects in the National League. Made a dramatic jump from AA ball to the big leagues in 1975. Voted the Braves' outstanding rookie in spring training that year. Once threw out 11 straight runners attempting to steal that spring. Was an excellent high school player, leading his Canoga Park team with a .468 batting average as a senior. Has led two leagues in fielding, the Western Carolinas League in 1972 and the Southern League in 1974.

Craig George Robinson. Born Aug. 21, 1948 at Abington, Pa. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 165. Graduated from Council Rock High, Newton, Pa., 1966. Graduated from Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, N.C., Bachelor of Arts in History, 1970. Single. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Obtained from the San Francisco Giants along with infielder Willie Montanez in exchange for infielders Darrell Evans and Marty Perez, June 14, 1976.

Returned to Atlanta in 1976 for his second turn in the Braves' organization. Played only sparingly after coming to Atlanta from the Giants. Was one of the main reasons the Braves enjoyed such a fine season in 1974. Robinson was the Braves' regular shortstop that year and Atlanta's defense was among the league's best. Braves' 74 record was their second best in Atlanta. Was traded to the Giants in 1975 in exchange for infielder Ed Goodson. A slick fielder, Robinson led the Pacific Coast League in fielding in 1971 and again in '72. Began his career in the Philadelphia organization. Spent the month of August in 1976 with the Braves' AAA farm team at Richmond and helped that team into the playoffs with his fielding. Braves got Robinson in 1974 along with Barry Lersch in exchange for Ron Scheuler. Was an All-Conference star with Wake Forest during his college career.

Patrick Edward Rockett. Born Jan. 9, 1955 at San Antonio, Tex. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 165. Graduated from Robert E. Lee High School, San Antonio, 1973. Single. Lives in San Antonio. Acquired—Signed after selection in the first round of the 1973 free agent draft.

Pat can boast of the strongest arm of any infielder in the Braves' organization. Young shortstop had an up-and-down year in 1976, but still regarded as one of the brightest prospects in the Atlanta minor league system. Hit a solid .245 with six homers at Richmond in 1976. Singled in his first big league at-bat against the Dodgers' Burt Hooton. That came after he was called up in September to the big league club. Picked 10th in the entire country when the Braves selected him in the 1973 draft.

Has had solid minor league credentials. Named to the Western Carolinas League All-Star team in 1974 and the Southern League All-Star team in 1975. Was an All-State high school football player, highly sought by the University of Texas among others. Also an All-State baseball player in Texas.

JERRY ROYSTER

INF

Jeron Kennis Royster. Born Oct. 18, 1952 at Sacramento, Cal. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 165. Graduated from Sacramento High School, 1970. Single. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Contract obtained from the Los Angeles Dodgers along with those of Jim Wynn, Tom Paciorek and Lee Lacy in exchange for Dusty Baker and Ed Goodson, Dec. 12, 1975.

One of the bright spots for the Braves in 1976 was the sparkling rookie season of Jerry Royster. He led the team in stolen bases and played a brilliant third base. He stole four bases before the All-Star break, got the green light to steal on his own then, and stole 20 more bases afterwards. Suffered through a pair of slumps during the season that kept his batting average at .248. Made two of the most spectacular plays of the year at third base. Caught one pop fly while falling into the photographer's box near third base and made another diving catch in the visitor's bullpen. Seemed to play his best against Cincinnati. Had four hits in one game against the Reds, and stole three bases in two nights against the World Champions.

Led the Pacific Coast League in hitting, runs and stolen bases in 1975, winning that league's player of the year award. . . . Named to the National League's All-Rookie team at third base by Topps. . . . A three-sport star in high school, he had indicated he was going to play college basketball. So, he wasn't drafted by any baseball team. . . . However, his friend Rowland Office coaxed him into playing sandlot ball and the Dodgers signed him as a free agent.

Nicknamed "Froggy" by his teammates because of his skinny legs. . . . Was one of the most popular players on the team with the fans last year. . . . Played third almost exclusively last year, but could see action at either short or second this season. . . . Played briefly during the winter instructional league at shortstop. . . . Makes his home in Atlanta now.

DICK RUTHVEN

Richard David Ruthven. Born March 27, 1951 at Sacramento, Cal. Bats and throws right. 6-3, 186. Graduated from Irvington High School, 1969. Attended Fresno State College. Married Susan Kay Harper. Lives in Atlanta, Ga. Acquired—Obtained from the Chicago White Sox along with Ken Henderson in exchange for Ralph Garr and Larvell Blanks, Dec. 12, 1975.

Had his winningest professional season in 1976. . . . Was the lone Brave named to the National League All-Star team for '76. . . . Led the team in shutouts with four and was second in wins, innings pitched and strikeouts. . . . Equaled the team high for strikeouts in a game with 10. . . . Started out brilliantly, but finished the season on a slow note. Had a 13-9 record at one point during the season before tiring near the end of the year. Had a career high in innings pitched. . . . His four shutouts tied for the fifth best mark in the league, and he combined for another shutout during the year.

Finished his third season in the big leagues in '76. He's only played one season in the minor leagues since signing with the Phillies in 1973. . . . Was twice a No. 1 draft choice. The Twins drafted him as their first choice, but Ruthven went on to college. Phillies picked him first in 1973. . . . Had two unusual statistics last season. Got a decision in each of his first 18 appearances last year, and did not allow an unearned run all season. . . . Won his first three games last season.

Married the twin sister of the wife of Philadelphia Phillies' infielder Tommy Hutton. . . . Was hit in the head by a line drive off the bat of the Mets' Ed Kranepool last spring and says it helped him be a better pitcher. "I quit trying to throw everything past the hitters and tried to pitch to them instead." . . . Worked during the off-season with WTCG-TV in Atlanta. . . . At Fresno State, Ruthven was 28-9 with a 1.51 ERA and 272 strikeouts in 291 innings.

Pablo Arnoldo Torrealba. Born April 28, 1948 at Barquisimeto, Venezuela. Bats and throws left, 5-9, 175. Attended Liceo Lisandro Alvarado High School, Barquisimeto. Married Maria Cecilia, has two children, Dahianna Cecilia, Pablo Arnoldo Jr. Lives in Barquisimeto. Acquired—Signed as a free agent Dec. 15, 1966.

A fast finish by Pablo in 1976 is hoped to be a forecast of things to come in 1977. The little reliever allowed but three earned runs in his last 25 innings for an ERA of 1.08 as the season drew to a close. Went twelve straight games in that stretch without allowing any run at all. Spent a month of the season on the disabled list with a skin ailment. Saved the first two games he appeared in at the beginning of the season, and in fact joined Phil Niekro in shutting out the Padres in the second game of the year.

Pablo has impressive minor league credentials. In 1975, he was named the outstanding lefthanded pitcher in AAA baseball while with the Richmond Braves. He led the league with a 1.44 ERA that season, won 12 games and recorded 15 saves. Pitched a no-hitter with Greenwood in 1968 in the Western Carolinas League. As a professional, his career ERA is 2.71. One of those pitchers who wants to throw every day. He once appeared in eight straight games for Richmond. Will join Mike Marshall out of the Braves bullpen this year for a strong left-right combination.

ATLANTA'S FARM AND SCOUTING SYSTEMS

The Atlanta Braves enjoyed a very successful season in the minor league system during the 1976 season, thanks to a wealth of talent throughout the organization and additional instruction with each minor league team. The Braves upped coaching staffs at each minor league team to three during the season and it resulted in one pennant and another near miss.

Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League was the pennant winner, edging Asheville in the championship series, thanks to the pitching of Bill Free and the hitting of Larry Whisenton. Gary Cooper, Jerry Keller and Jim Doherty. Richmond barely squeezed into the International League playoffs and then quickly whipped the regular season champion Rochester before losing in the finals to Syracuse. While Savannah, Kingsport and Bradenton, a new Braves' team last year, didn't win any pennants, each team boasted of a bevy of talented young players.

The Braves in the World Series

1914 — Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 — Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the series to Lou Bourdreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero: Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 — Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 — New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 — New York Mets 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 76.9 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score 7-4.

1977 BRAVES' TELEVISION AND RADIO

The Atlanta Braves and WTCG-TV continue their successful association with their most ambitious television schedule ever in 1977.

WTCG-TV will televise 72 regular season Braves' games and two spring training contests for a total of 74 telecasts of Braves' games in 1977. That's set for the nearly 30 stations on the Braves' television network.

Powerful WSB Radio will once again be the Braves' flagship station on an extensive 60-station radio network across the Southeast. Braves radio games have proven one of the most listened-to in sports.

The Braves' broadcasters—Ernie Johnson, Pete Van Wieren and Skip Caray—who proved such a popular threesome last season return in 1977.

ERNIE JOHNSON

Ernie Johnson, the Braves' veteran Director of Broadcasting, will be the anchor man in the radio booth for the Braves for the second season. Johnson, who played with the Braves and pitched in the World Series in 1957, has worked with the organization for over 25 years. He served as public relations director prior to this broadcasting days, which began in 1962. He became the Braves' play-by-play broadcaster in 1966 and was named Director of Broadcasting in 1974.

Johnson and his wife Lois have three children and live in Crabapple, Ga.

PETE VAN WIENEN

Pete Van Wieren, 32, moved into a big league broadcasting job last season and did an excellent job as a member of the Braves' team. He had worked with the Tidewater Tides of the International League as a play-by-play man for two seasons previous to joining Atlanta, and has worked in broadcasting since 1965. Van Wieren broadcast Atlanta Hawks and Davidson basketball games last year and had previously worked with the Tidewater Sharks' hockey team.

Van Wieren and his wife Elaine live in Tucker, Ga. with children Steven and Jon.

SKIP CARAY

The Broadcaster of the Year in Georgia three times, Skip Caray begins his second season as the anchor man on Braves' television. Caray, 37, has been play-by-play announcer of the basketball Atlanta Hawks for nine years and also hosts a sports talk show in Atlanta.

Caray and his wife Paula live in Atlanta.
